

Board Matters

September 18, 2025

Question Regarding Homelessness and Moving to Work

Commissioner Zurawski asked whether the FCRHA's authorities as a Moving to Work (MTW) agency could potentially be impacted due to a recent federal executive order regarding homelessness. Amy Ginger, Deputy Director, Operations, noted that the FCRHA has not utilized its MTW authority to ease entry into subsidized housing for households experiencing homelessness.

Clarification on Autumn Willow Senior Housing

Commissioner Zurawski requested clarification on the Autumn Willow Senior Housing development in the Springfield District, noting there have been advertisements describing the property as available to individuals who would not qualify as an older adult based on age. Anna Shapiro, Deputy Director, Real Estate Finance and Development, noted staff will ensure appropriate information is shared with the public.

FCRHA Commissioner Retreat Dress Code

Vice Chair Lardner requested clarification on the dress code for the upcoming FCRHA Commissioner Retreat. A casual dress code was agreed upon by the Commissioners.

FCRHA Scholarship Program Awards Ceremony

Chairman Stanton thanked Commissioner Bloom, Commissioner Mondoro, and HCD staff for their work on the FCRHA Scholarship Program.

Housing Fairfax 2025: Tysons and Beyond Symposium Success

Director Fleetwood thanked those who attended the Housing Fairfax 2025: Tysons and Beyond Symposium held on August 28, 2025. Director Fleetwood noted the event was well attended and garnered significant media attention. Chairman Stanton thanked staff for their work on the symposium and shared her appreciation for the format of the event.

Upcoming Events

Director Fleetwood reminded Commissioners of the upcoming FCRHA retreat on Saturday, September 20, 2025, at 9:30 a.m., noting breakfast and lunch would be provided.

FCRHA Meeting Reminders

Director Fleetwood reminded Commissioners that the next FCRHA Committee of the Whole meeting is scheduled for October 8, 2025. The next FCRHA meeting is scheduled for October 16, 2025.